

Check your Cultural Fit

You fit into our somewhat different culture if ...

You have a strong sense of community and responsibility of others.

You value new and different perspectives.

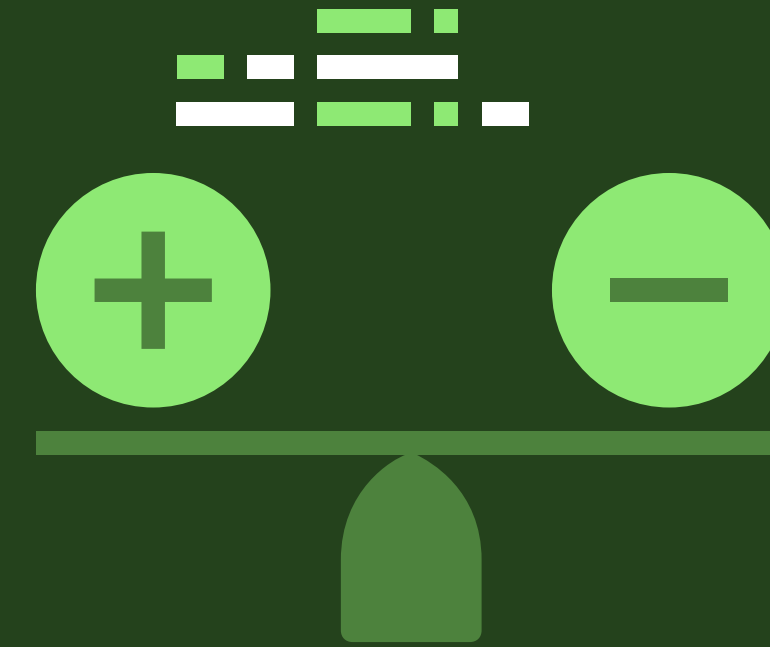

You put your ego aside to pursue the greater goals of the team.

You have a “let’s work together” attitude.

You work together with team members as equals.

You actively seek dialogue and are willing to learn from others.

You see obstacles as stepping stones to new experiences.

You are bold, curious, and eager to share your knowledge and implement new ideas.
